Agreement in Steel Talks Is Indicated

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Top-level steel negotiators reportedly have reached broad agreement on a non-inflationary labor contract for the steel industry.

Reliable Washington sources said the chief bargainers for the union and the major steel firms reached agreement on a two-year contract Wednesday. The United Steelworkers' Union international executive board and international wage policy committee have been summoned to meet here next Saturday. Union law requires that contract proposals be ratified by the wage policy committee.

The union's 11 company negotiating committees will meet Sunday.

As currently described the new pact appears to meet President Kennedy's call for an early settlement, without a strike, and without inflationary provisions.

Coming three months ahead of the June 30 expiration date of existing contracts, the reported agreement would head off both a steel strike and a potentially dangerous rush to stockpile steel against the possibility of such a strike.

The agreement is said to pass up an immediate wage increase from the present average of $3.28 an hour paid to some 430,000 basic Continued on Page Two

Decline in School Debate Leading to Censorship in America, Says Washburn

SHREVEPORT, La. — There is a connection between the decline in public school debating, the rise in public tolerance of censorship, and the growth of the welfare state in America, Alex. H. Washburn, editor and publisher of the Hope (Ark.) Star, told the Shreveport Kiwanis Club today noon.

Washburn, a high school and college debater, recalled that the schools used to emphasize debate teams, while today they have practically vanished. He said the training for practical, working citizenship was invaluable. Debaters had to compile source material, work up their own outlines, and then speak on the affirmative and negative sides on alternate weeks, he said.

"Today," the editor continued, "we have quit training debaters. America is moving toward the welfare state — an official bureaucracy attempts to strangle the printed word through punitive tax regulations against public policy advertising — and a new generation in the schools professes to see nothing wrong in outright censorship."

Washburn pointed to the questionnaire results of the 1959 Youth Participation Week in Texas, in which one-fourth of the Lone Star's junior and senior high school students considered more governmental control over mass media to be the pressing need of the hour.

Ironical Twist
"That's an ironical twist for you," he commented, "who no longer know how to debate are ready to accept censorship."

"Free enterprise and a free press are cornerstones of the American republic," he added, "but they are being eroded away by the oncoming welfare state."

"We complain about our failure to put over The American Idea in foreign countries — but may it not be due to the fact we preach freedom and enterprise abroad while practicing the welfare state at home?"

Washburn, national chairman of the Press Committee to Eliminate Censorship by Taxation, an organization of 250 American editors and publishers, attacked the current course of the congress in rewriting the tax bill.

He said his committee had been working for legislation to prevent the Internal Revenue Service from disallowing expense deductions by business for advertising costs on promotion or defeat of legislation.

But the latest trend in congress is to allow direct lobbying expense deductions and disallow advertising costs, he said. "The net effect," he continued, "is an editorial in the Bakersfield (Calif.) Californian, 'would be to force the taxpayers to pay for lobbying while denying a business or industry the right to deduct advertising expenditures for the promotion or defeat of legislation.'"

Like Argentina
Washburn said the destructive effect upon the nation's press was obvious, continuing:

"The hand of government is against us, just as the hand of Juan Peron — now again in the news — was against the great Argentinian daily La Prensa, and finally brought La Prensa down. 'In neither Argentina nor the United States was there any flat order, 'Don't print this,' Argentina merely organized La Prensa's production labor with government politicians then organized the newspaper-distributing system — and finally cut off the paper supply."

"Here in America we use the subterfuge of Internal Revenue Service regulations — to make the cost of freedom of the press eventually prohibitive."

The Arkansas editor spoke on the topic, "Our Heroes — Will Their Statues Stand?" — a reference to a recent news picture showing a mob in the Dominican Republic pulling down a statue of the late dictator Trujillo. And, previous to that, he said, the Russians destroyed all the public memorials to their late dictator Stalin.

"So is it always when a people leave off being governed by law and commerce to be governed by men," he added.

Washburn continued: "Most citizens are aware we have left the hard rock of the constitution and are clutched in the sinking sands of popular politics — meaning government by men rather than by law. And it is government by men instead of by law when the official class flouts the constitutional rights of the individual and cancels out effective debate in order to enact laws of its own choosing."

A Stacked Deck
"Events have given a twist to our original American government. Today it is the Supreme Court that writes laws of bureaucratic interpretation by judicial decision, and it is the congress that has to pass judgment upon laws it did not write.

"But it is easier for the judges — who are few — to write law, than for the congressmen — who are many — to reverse them."

"How come, then, that we have let tyranny rise in this new country and in the republic that our ancestors built? This tyranny stems directly from the people's elections — for it is through the principles and candidates endorsed in elections that bureaucrats and judges are appointed."

"But today the responsible portion of the electorate is being overwhelmed by the menace of the non-taxpaying welfare vote. In my home county of Hempstead, Arkansas, 21.1% of the people receive cash welfare grants or surplus commodities, and this 21.1% figure probably holds true for all Arkansas, Hempstead being an average county."

"With a fifth of the votes held by those who receive taxes to buy their daily bread, instead of earning their daily bread to pay taxes, it is clear that the taxpayers, whether big or small, have lost control of their elections and their government."

"The solution I offer is mine alone — from an individual editor speaking for himself and not the national Press Committee. My solution is simply this: To strike off the voting lists all persons receiving welfare grants or surplus commodities."

In Defense of Poor
"I speak not against the poor, but in their behalf. The welfare program had its origin back in the 1930's in editorial pages such as my own which advocated abolition of the county poor-farm and the substitution thereof of public grants to enable the poor to live in privacy and find a life of their own. What I am attacking, of course, is the politicians' well-known habit of adding to the welfare rolls in order to build up a controlled vote."

"My proposal to strike welfare recipients off the voting lists would reduce the rolls but increase the benefits for the truly deserving."

"Let's face this problem of an adulterated electorate squarely. Back in the days of the republic's founding, 1790, 95% of our people lived on the land. Today 70% of us live in cities or towns."

"The danger was foreseen by that original democrat Thomas Jefferson. On December 20, 1787, he wrote from Paris, France to James Madison in America, as follows:

"I think our governments (The States) will remain virtuous for many centuries as long as they are chiefly agricultural; and this will be as long as there shall be vacant lands in any part of America. When they get piled upon one another in large cities, as in Europe, they will become corrupt as in Europe."

"And at the turn of this century the problem of the adulterated and controlled vote was likewise recognized by Joseph Pulitzer, founder of the Democratic New York World, who dedicated it as 'An institution . . . that should never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.'"

Argentine Coup Arrests the President

By ROMAN JIMENEZ

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's armed forces overthrew President Arturo Frondizi early today in a bloodless coup that took 24 hours to complete. The military put Frondizi under arrest at 5:46 a.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Frondizi, 53, was arrested by a naval officer at his luxurious private home in a Buenos Aires suburb and driven in a motorcade of five cars to the capital's airport.

He was rushed aboard an Argentine air force plane for the island of Martin Garcia, a military reservation 30 miles north-east of Buenos Aires in the Plate River Estuary. It was on this island that the military held Dictator Juan Peron after they overthrew him in 1955.

The three armed forces chiefs announced that Senate President Jose Maria Guido, next in line of presidential succession under the constitution, would succeed Frondizi.

There was no immediate announcement from Guido, however, that he would take the post. And Hector Gomez Machado, who heads Frondizi's Intransigent Radical party in the Chamber of Deputies, said he would not. Guido is also a member of the Intransigent Radicals.

Guido had stood by Frondizi earlier in the crisis and said he would not supplant him. But military sources said Guido had accepted the presidency after Frondizi told him it was the best way for the country.

It was not immediately clear whether Guido, if he took over, would have full presidential power or be a figurehead for a military junta determined to crush Peronism. The general belief was that the military would at least insist on countersigning all his decrees.

The ousting of Frondizi, whose four years in office had been beset by constant conflict with the military, was the culmination of a crisis resulting from startling and sweeping Peronist victories in congressional and provincial elections March 18.

Frondizi had allowed the Peronists to campaign as a party for the first time since Peron's overthrow. Communists and Castroites got behind them, while the anti-Communist forces remained split between the Intransigent Radicals and the rival People's Radicals.

The chiefs of Argentina's three armed services charged Frondizi brought about this latest crisis by bungling leadership and declared in a communique explaining the president's ouster:

"Enclosed within the terms of his own dilemma the government faced on one side the resurgence of the extremist forces (Peronists) infiltrated into democracy. On the other side there was the imminent possibility of great social disturbances. He lacked strength, moral and political authority to solve the situation. Neither the national unity nor the maintenance of public order were within the sphere of his real possibilities. Thus the armed forces received once more the responsibility of re-establishing those values."

The three military commanders, in a message to all units of the armed forces announcing Frondizi had been deposed, asserted tersely: "This decision is irrevocable."

Frondizi, whose term had two more years to run, went down fighting as he vowed he would.

Faubus' Aide May Seek State Office

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus' executive secretary wants to be secretary of state if Faubus decides not to seek a sixth term.

Arnold Sikes said Wednesday he definitely would run if Faubus did not.

The secretary of state currently is Mrs. Nancy J. Hall, who has filed for treasurer. An appointee, she is ineligible to succeed herself.

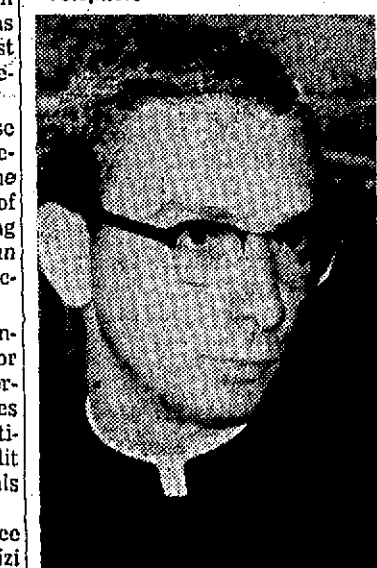

Others who have indicated an interest in the secretary of state's office are state Auditor Jimmie Jones, State Rep. Milton Willis of Crawford County and Phil Stratton, a former Faubus aide now an employee of the Public Service Commission.

Materials in Stockpiles Open Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Except for two items listed as "undisclosed materials," the cost, value and quantity of each of 76 materials in the nation's $7.5-billion strategic stockpile were a matter of public record today.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., removed the secret labels from 62 war-essential materials Wednesday at a hearing of his Armed Services subcommittee on stockpiling, which is investigating the costly hoard by request of President Kennedy. A dozen materials were declassified last week.

Wednesday's testimony revealed the government owns more than it needs of most stockpiled products. A three-year supply is now considered enough to tide the country over a major war.

Figures supplied by the Office of Emergency Planning showed an excess of about $5 million worth of bauxite, $79 million of quartz crystals, $48 million of platinum, $21 million of silicon carbide, $23.5 million of aluminum oxide and $16.4 million of cadmium.

There also is $25.7 million worth of unneeded castor oil, $1.4 million of excess opium, and $5.2 million of unneeded duck feathers and down used for military mattresses.

60c Hour for Mexican Workers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The U.S. Labor Department notified Gov. Orval E. Faubus today it has set a wage rate of 60 cents an hour for Mexican labor in Arkansas this summer.

The rate is a compromise between last year's scale of 6 cents and the 70 cents the Labor Department was ready earlier this year to put into effect.

Notification of the compromise came through Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., who telephoned Faubus today.

Announcement of the 70 cent rate created a storm in east Arkansas, where Mexican labor is principally used.

Farmers of the area argued vigorously against the proposal at a meeting in West Memphis earlier this year. Faubus then fired a telegram to Sec. of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg asking for a compromise.

Faubus told Goldberg the 70 cent rate would work an undue hardship. The governor promised to create a special state commission to study the problems of migrant laborers and to recommend steps which might be taken to improve their situation.

Man Sought by Local Officials

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The extradition from Texas of Coleman C. Jennings of Dallas was asked Wednesday by the governor's office.

The governor's office said Jennings was charged at Hope with failing to register as a stock broker.

Charges against Jennings were filed by Hope Prosecutor Royce Weisenberger in connection with an offense that occurred Feb. 10, 1960.

Bloodless Coup Leaves Syria Calm

By FAROUK NASSAR

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Syria remained calm today after the bloodless coup that toppled the right-wing civilian government. The new military rulers shortened the curfew they ordered by one hour.

The frontiers were still sealed, isolating this Mediterranean republic in the heart of the Middle East. Otherwise daily life went on normally with streets ordered cleared only from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m.

Damascus Radio continued to tell the five million Syrians—long accustomed to upheavals—to prepare for a swing back toward the left from the anti-nationalization policies of deposed President Nazim El Koudsi's regime.

The cornerstone of Wednesday's revolt was proclaimed as building constructive Arab socialism at home, promoting Arab unity, and positive neutrality and nonalignment in foreign affairs.

The army made clear that the coup was a continuation — not a reversal — of its Sept. 28 revolution that broke the alliance with President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic.

Neighboring Turkey and Jordan took the word of the Syrian military that its takeover was purely an internal affair. A spokesman for the Turkish foreign ministry predicted quick diplomatic recognition of the new military regime.

Diplomatic sources in Cairo claimed the Syrian switch enhanced President Nasser's prestige because of the juntas endorsement of Arab socialism, the term Nasser uses for his program.

Israeli officials adopted a detached attitude and said they did not expect any change in Syrian-Israeli relations that have become increasingly bitter with recent border clashes.

Charges against Jennings were filed by Hope Prosecutor Royce Weisenberger in connection with an offense that occurred Feb. 10, 1960.

JFK Says Tax Plan Failure to Hurt Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today that if Republicans succeed in killing the administration's tax revision plan it will be a blow to the nation's economy.

He told his news conference he has "great difficulty in understanding the position of any political party that makes it a political objective to defeat this bill."

The President said that if the effort to kill the bill succeeds it will wipe out the hope of stimulating business investment, cost the country $600 million in taxes which now go uncollected on income from dividends and interest, and damage the administration's program for economic growth and increased national production.

Kennedy said everyone who wants this country to grow and provide new jobs should support the bill. It would, he said, close many tax loopholes that now exist.

House Republicans are driving to knock out of the bill tax incentives for business that would deprive the government of $1.2 billion in revenue it now receives. They also are maneuvering to defeat a proposed withholding tax on dividends and interest that would bring in an extra $650 million a year.

The presidential argument for the tax bill shared the news conference spotlight with Kennedy's announcement that Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Whittaker is retiring for reasons of ill health.

His retirement takes effect April 1. He will be eligible for half-pay on his $35,000 yearly salary.

Kennedy said nothing about a successor.

19th Annual Minstrel Tonight at 8

The curtain rises on the 19th annual Hope Kiwanis Club Minstrel show at 8 o'clock tonight in the high school auditorium. A near capacity crowd is expected. A second performance will be held Friday night.

Advance ticket sales have been good this year. Members of the Little League Baseball team have been canvassing the schools and the downtown area for the past several days, and yesterday had sold $155 in tickets. Members of the Kiwanis Club had been assigned 300 tickets — for advanced sales and some members had exhausted their supply.

The largest souvenir program in the history of the minstrel was published this year, containing 32 pages with 190 paid ads from business firms of Hope, grossing $162. This revenue, along with ticket sales, goes into the Kiwanis Youth Fund.

In the past 15 years, more than $21,000 has been spent by the Kiwanis Club on boys and girls entertainment and recreational programs in Hope. For the past three years, the minstrel has opened in Blevins where it showed Tuesday night, all proceeds going to the Blevins Senior Class.

The show is timed at two hours with a 10 minute intermission period. The cast is made up of veteran entertainers with songs, music, jokes and specialty numbers that rounds out a well balanced program of entertainment.

Agreement

steelworkers. But it reportedly provides for about 10 cents an hour in fringe benefits—vacation, pension, and unemployment provisions.

The contract could be reopened, it is reported, for wage increase negotiations at the end of its first year.

The settlement terms were said to include improved seniority and grievance procedures and new authority for a joint continuing industry-union human relations committee, expected to ease the eventual reopening of wage talks.

Chief industry negotiator R.
Conrad Cooper of the U.S. Steel Corp. told a press conference after Wednesday's talks here that the negotiators have "defined the outline of the area" of possible agreement, and that much negotiating work remained to be done.

USW President David J. Mc-Donald did not say whether the union's wage policy committee will be asked to vote on a proposal. He said only that the committee was summoned to bring it up to date on the bargaining.

Cooper and McDonald returned to the table for a 2-hour, 45-minute night meeting ending shortly before last midnight, but neither side had any comment after the session.

Formal negotiations began Feb.
14, collapsed March 2, then resumed March 14 at the request of President Kennedy. Both sides have said they planned to work for an early settlement.

When the talks broke down, the industry was reportedly offering a two-year package including a 6 to 8-cents-an-hour wage hike, while the union was holding out for 10 cents.

Legal Wire Tap Asked by Atty. Gen.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty.
Gen. Robert F. Kennedy asked Congress today to let state and federal lawmen use evidence obtained by wiretapping to fight major crime and racketeering.

"The need for legislation is urgent," Kennedy said in testimony prepared for the Senate Judiciary Committee. "The existing situation with respect to wiretapping is chaotic."

"Law enforcement has not kept pace with scientific advancement," Kennedy said, "and individual privacy has not been protected."

Kennedy urged passage of a bill would allocate about $487 million in federal funds a year for three years to states for support of elementary and high school programs.

It is designed to avoid controversy. To avoid the fears of federal control, or parochial school aid, the Bailey bill proposes turning money over directly to the state and leaving its use to the state's discretion.

Under the Bailey proposal Arkansas would receive about $2,210, 000.

Many Made Homeless by Floods

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hundreds of persons were temporarily homeless and property damage mounted today as flood waters from swollen rivers and streams in Nebraska and Iowa dealt more damaging blows.

In Nebraska, overflows from the surging Northfork River spilled across some 100 blocks in the residential district and much of the business section of Norfolk, a city of some 13,200 in the northeast part of the state.

In Iowa, six hundred National Guardians and volunteers pa-trrolled the built-up dikes of the east side of Sioux City, a town of more than 89,000 population threatened by the flood waters of the swollen Floyd River.

In the flood belt west of Omaha most of the 550 residents in the village of Waterloo had left their homes as the Elkhorn River overflowed.

Several hundred persons already have been evacuated from homes in Sioux City, in the northwest part of the state. Other persons left their homes in Cherokee, a town of 27,000 on the Little Sioux River, and at Charles City, a town of more than 10,000 in northwest Iowa on the Cedar River.

In Sioux City, a half million sandbags have been placed along the dikes extending for 10 miles to Leeds, and officials expressed hope the flood waters will be held back. The Floyd, which flows into the Missouri River through the Sioux City stockyards district, was expected to crest at 22.5 feet, 6 1/2 feet above flood stage this afternoon or tonight.

Thousands of acres of farm land were covered with water in the two states. Some flooding also was reported in sections of Minnesota, Missouri and Illinois.

In Rochester, Minn., flood waters from the Zumbro River and Bear Creek, which join in the downtown district, lapped at the Mayo Civic Auditorium and spread into some parts of the business and residential districts.

Cooler weather spread into most of the flood-stricken regions as well as in most of the northern two-thirds of the nation after a couple of days of mild weather.

Below freezing weather covered northern sections of the Rockies and the Plains.

Snow fell in western Nebraska, northeastern Colorado and southeast Wyoming, with falls ranging up to more than one inch in some areas. Light snow powdered areas in the Upper Great Lakes region.

Lumberman Dies at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Nathaniel Dyke Jr., 70, a prominent lumberman and business executive, died here Wednesday at a local hospital.

He had business interests in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Alabama, and had served several federal agencies.

he said would:

"1. Enable the federal government to prosecute more effectively certain major crimes.

"2. Enable the Department of Justice to more effectively prevent and punish persons who illegally violate the telephone users' right to privacy.

"3. Clarify the authority of state police officials to wiretap."

Kennedy said wiretapping has been "authorized in some national security and kidnapping cases, but the resulting evidence cannot be used in court. "It is an anomalous situation to receive information of a heinous crime and yet not be able to use that information in court," he said.

Priest Fined on Assault Charge

The assault with intent to rape charge was reduced by Hidalgo County Dist. Atty. R. L. Lattimore.

DOROTHY DIX

Are These Women Preying on Her Son?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: We fear our 19-year-old son has fallen a victim to two designing women — a mother and daughter. He is now in the Service and stationed near enough to come home when on leave. Instead he stays three and four days at a time in the home of these women.

The mother is 43, the daughter 18. The Army assumes our boy is home; we assume he is at the Post.

His explanation for not telling us of his whereabouts is: "I'm afraid you would not understand and be angry." The mother and daughter see nothing wrong in it. The mother says, "The kids are entitled to be alone."

I feel that if we agreed, we would care little for the ladies' reputation. The mother retorts, "Conventions be damned! They don't put food on my table."

Now my son writes that he is going to marry the daughter and thinks it is my place to get in touch with her.

We feel she and her mother were doing wrong to be part of the deception. They insist that since our boy is in the Army, we no longer have the right to tell him what to do.

I feel that until he becomes some girl's husband he is still my son and will be treated as such.

We have tried to raise men, not little boys, and in the doing, never measured the cost. To me, the greatest reward in the world for a mother is to see the day when, her son, a monument to her sacrifice and labor, develops into a real man. We know our son knows right from wrong. It is hard to believe that two people with low morals could upset our teachings. All things considered, I think it is the place of mother and daughter to approach us, don't you — Worried Mother.

Dear Helen: There comes a time when, much as we love our children, we must let go — for their own good. If your son, though not of age, is old enough to be in the army he is supposed to be mature enough to make his own decisions. Technically, he is under his commanding officer's jurisdiction, rather than yours. All you can do is pray that your teachings will keep him afloat now. If he is ever to become the man you dream of him being, he's got to sink or swim without your help. Difficult though the task may be, it's your place to welcome your future daughter-in-law into the family, not hers to write you.

Dear Helen: I am on tenterhooks over a man who wants to marry me but hesitates. I have two lovely children by my former husband. But, alas, I can bear no more children and therein lies my problem for this man wants a child of his very own. Now, much as he loves me, asks time to think things over. I don't want to rush him but shall curl up and die if he doesn't make up his mind soon. Should I press for an answer now — Desolate.

Dear Desolate: By all means take the initiative but, instead of pressing for an answer, give him an ultimatum. Put his love to test, by saying goodbye! Explain that his hesitation is answer enough and that further delay is simply driving the knife deeper into your heart. This will clarify his thinking in a hurry.

Dear Helen: I am a 14 year old boy with a big problem — my Dad still calls me baby names like honey, sweetie and dear. This bugs me, especially when he does it in front of other people. Believe me, I'm no mama's boy — being almost six feet and wearing long pants. Dad is a fine father in every other respect. How can I get him to quit treating me like a four-year old — Embarrassed.

Dear Embarrassed: The direct approach is always the best — especially between parent and child. Tell your father the truth and you as an equal, not an infant in arms. If he thinks your given name too formal, perhaps you can hit upon a nickname to yours and his, liking.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine, care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Our Fine Teenagers."

Assures Reds Will Not Stop Planes

BERLIN (A. K. — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, military adviser to President Kennedy, said today that Soviet harassment in the Berlin air corridors will not stop Western aircraft from flying to the isolated city.

At a news conference winding up a 22-hour visit to Berlin, Gen. Taylor described the Soviet tactics as "senseless and pointless nonsense—I don't see any sense or reason in it."

He said a continuation of the Soviet tactics "will have no bearing on the continuation of Western Allied flights."

Earlier Gen. Taylor got a look from a helicopter at Berlin's wall.

Thinks Eddie Sick of Liz's Actions

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Fisher is in a hospital here.

The New York Daily News says the singer, "crushed by the apparent collapse of his marriage with Liz Taylor has suffered a nervous breakdown and is a patient behind locked doors in a private hospital."

Fisher's personal manager, Milton Blackstone, says, "There's nothing mentally wrong with him."

Blackstone said Fisher entered a hospital for rest and relaxation and is scheduled to leave Friday. "He has a lot of work to do and some recordings to make," Blackstone added.

Blackstone said later that Louis Nizer, counsel for Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor, had issued this statement:

"Mr. Fisher is simply resting reports.

for a few days at a general hospital at the suggestion of his physician, Dr. Max Jacobson. All rumors of a more serious illness are unfounded.

"I have advised Miss Taylor in Rome of Eddie going to a hospital for a brief rest and she is comforted by the fact that the published statements of his condition are untrue."

The copyright story in the Daily News said, "The prospect of divorce proved too much for the young singer."

The Daily News said Fisher is in Gracie Square Hospital. The hospital, which has a general division and a psychiatric division, said it has no patient registered as Eddie Fisher.

Fisher, 33, who arrived in New York from Rome on March 21, seemed normal last Sunday night when he appeared on television here (CBS-TV "What's My Line.")

Miss Taylor, 30, recently was linked romantically with Richard Burton, her male lead in "Cleopatra." The Fishers and Burton, who is married, have denied the

Bear Bryant Is Conway Visitor

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Alabama football coach Paul (Bear) Bryant was in Conway earlier this week to visit the family of Gary Standerfer, a football player killed Feb. 5 in a wreck in Mississippi.

Standerfer had been signed to a football scholarship at Alabama a week prior to his death. Bryant, whose team was national champion last year, spent about six hours with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Standerfer and invited them to attend one of the Crimson Tide's football games at Tuscaloosa this fall.

Bryant made the trip by private plane

He said he would not make any more trips out of Alabama for health reasons.

Due to illness we regret we could not be with our daughter and sister, Maxine Kelly Riddle, during her interment.

Cepeda Getting That Home Run Start Early

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Who might hit 62 in '62.

When that question pops up around baseball circles, the player named as most likely to hit that homer target is Orlando Cepeda, who started spring training late but is getting the home run range early.

The National League home run king gave his backers added support Wednesday when he belted a three-run job that snapped a 5-5 tie and carried the San Francisco Giants to an 11-6 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels at Phoenix.

It was No. 4 of the exhibition season for the right-handed swinging Cepeda and his third in three consecutive games.

Cepeda is one of the players figured as a threat to Roger Maris' 61-homer mark. The young first baseman-outfielder hit 46 homers and 142 RBI last season while building a .311 batting average.

With an expanded 10-team league an enlarged 162-game schedule, Cepeda could wind up No. 1 in the homer derby. And quite possibly with 62 in '62.

In other noteworthy developments

Wednesday, Houston's Ken Johnson became the first pitcher this spring to hurl a nine-inning shutout as he blanked Boston 6-0 on five hits at Scottsdale, and Washington's unpredictable Jimmy Piersall tried an experiment that partially succeeded in a 15-7 loss to Baltimore at Pompano Beach.

The New York Yankees defeated St. Louis 4-1 at Port Lauderdale

Philadelphia outslug Milwaukee 12-11 at Clearwater. Cincinnati beat Detroit 4-2 in 10 innings at Lakeland. The New York Mets edged Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3 at St. Petersburg. Cleveland whipped the Chicago Cubs 9-6 at Mesa and Minnesota nipped Pittsburgh 7-6 at Orlando.

The Colts won their 11th in the last 13 games with Johnson

Paret Better But Is Given Little Chance

NEW YORK (AP) — Former welterweight boxing champion Benny Paret of Cuba entered his fifth day of unconsciousness today with his wife optimistic but his doctors saying he still had only a slight chance to survive.

A medical bulletin Wednesday night from Roosevelt Hospital, where Paret, 24, was rushed for emergency brain surgery after his 12th round knockout loss to Emile Griffith Saturday night, said the fighter "is maintaining the slight improvement which he showed yesterday. His condition remains critical."

A spokesman said his coma had lessened but remained deep.

"He's not going to get better fast," the spokesman said. "He may get worse. There's no way of telling how long he'll be in a coma. He could come out of it in a few minutes or a year from now. And he might not come out of it at all."

Paret's personal physician, Dr. Manuel Acosta, talked to hospital authorities and said he was convinced there was only a slight chance Paret would recover. Two neurologists said that, at best, the fighter's chances were less than 5 in 100.

While the reports were not encouraging

Paret's wife, Lucy, said: "I feel a lot better than I felt about his condition before." Mrs. Paret, expecting the couple's second child in September, has been with her husband almost constantly since Sunday after a hurried trip here from Miami.

Paret's brother, Antonio, 26, arrived

Wednesday night from Santa Clara, Cuba. Antonio said their mother, Maxima Crespo, had her travel papers in order and expected to come to New York from Havana today or Friday.

Segregation in North Is Said Worse

DETROIT (AP)—Informal segregation in the North is a much more serious problem than segregation in the South, a sociologist told 4,600 elementary school principals yesterday.

Dr. Raymond W. Mack, chairman and associate professor of sociology at Northwestern University, said:

"We are rapidly and efficiently breaking down the last legal barriers of segregation in the South. In fact, legal segregation is on its last legs.

"But it will take longer to break down the informal segregation, most of which is in the Northern cities.

"The Southern problem is being solved, either by outmigration or movement of people out of the South, or it is being taken off the hook because their system is vulnerable to law, and so bit by bit it is breaking down. Another generation or two and things will be easier in the South."

Dr. Mack, speaking to the Department of Elementary School Principals of the National Education Association, added:

"In the North, we have unofficial segregation. You cannot take it to the Supreme Court. It is an efficient segregation, based on where you live and where you go to school.

"It is difficult to be a responsible educator and not devote some thought to how this problem of segregation can be solved. If you are a professional educator or principal, it is not enough to say 'it was a decision of the local board of education and they were elected by the people.'

"If you are a professional educator, it is your obligation to fight for educational opportunity without regard to race, color or creed."

Dr. Mack said that as the degree of automation in industry increased, there will be a decline in the number of which used to be assigned to the lowest grade unskilled workers. He said Negroes were assigned most of these jobs in days past.

He urged educators to realize that in the years ahead there will be fewer jobs in the lowest unskilled labor class and that these workers, whether Negro or white, will have to be given educational opportunities to fit them for jobs in higher classifications.

Peace Corps Group to the Philippines

GI Families to Travel at U. S. Expense

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Government-paid travel of military families to Europe will resume by early May, key Pentagon officials predicted today.

Such travel by wives and children of Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine officers and men was suspended nearly six months ago at a time when the Berlin crisis military buildup was in full swing. The Defense Department said then that the requirements for moving 40,000 regular Army reinforcements to Europe made necessary the suspension of dependent travel.

This troop movement is long past, but the Kennedy administration has kept the dependent travel suspension in force as one way of cutting down the still bothersome drain of gold and dollars.

All the services have urged that the restriction be lifted, arguing that it is creating a morale problem and inhibiting re-enlistments.

No decision has been announced but there are strong hints one is imminent.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara hinted as much in a letter to Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., in which the Pentagon chief said the suspension policy "now is generating very serious personnel problems for the armed forces."

(Editors—the following graph is embargoed for 10 a.m. EST)

Meanwhile, Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr. said in a speech prepared for a Bethany College convocation in West Virginia that "one of our great needs at the present time is the early resumption of dependent travel to overseas areas so that our soldiers can benefit" from the influence of family life.

Indonesia Thinks War Inevitable

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A high Indonesian official today discounted the possibility of further talks with the Dutch on West New Guinea and said a military clash is inevitable.

The official said Indonesia broke off the U.S.-sponsored talks last week because the Dutch bluntly declared they were not prepared to accept Indonesia's demand for a transfer of administration of the Dutch-held territory Indonesia claims.

Indonesia does not believe a resumption of talks would serve any purpose because of the hostile attitude of the Dutch government, the official said.

The Indonesian official, who declined to be identified, said that during the secret talks near Washington the Dutch insisted on discussing arrangements for an interim period to follow Dutch relinquishment of the territory. But the Indonesian source said, the Dutch would not agree that such a period would be a step in the transfer of administration to Indonesia.

"Unless there is a change in principle from the Netherlands' side," the official said, "Indonesia does not know how the Washington talks can be continued. Though regretfully, for the time being the Indonesians consider that a military clash with Holland cannot be avoided."

Milk Group Accused by Plant Official

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Little Rock milk company executive H. S. (Boots) Coleman testified Wednesday the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association charged his firm a premium while allowing the Dean Milk Co. of Conway a preferred price.

Coleman testified for the second day in a hearing on Federal Trade Commission charges against CAMPA.

Coleman said the favoritism CAMPA showed Dean was to the detriment of his firm and other local milk processors. He told Hearing Examiner Herman Tocker of Washington he consistently had objected to the premium, which was over and above the price set by the federal government for milk.

Dean was using the preferred price, Coleman said, to meet competition in the Memphis market.

CAMPA and its secretary-manager, David L. Parr, are charged by the FTC with favoring certain milk processors with discriminatory prices and conspiring to restrain or eliminate competition.

CAMPA and Parr have denied the charges, and contend that purported law violations never occurred.

Coleman testified Wednesday that Dean was allowed a price differential on milk it sold in the Memphis area for several years prior to 1961.

Weight Is a Lot in Show Business

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — In show business circles, where a slim figure is often as important as talent, weight-watching is a way of life.

Hermione Gingold, who has a trim, slim and svelte figure, presented a most unusual spectacle as she sat comfortably and happily at luncheon, slathering butter on a rich piece of French bread, and digging into an extra compounded of chicken liver, savory and highly caloric sauce and butter-dripping potato and vegetables.

"I never gain weight," said Miss Gingold calmly. "I have a system."

The Gingold system of avoiding avoirdupois is, like its inventor, highly unusual. But, while it works for her, it might not be quite so effective on others.

"Dame Edith Evans has always been one of the most beautiful women ever to walk on a stage," Miss Gingold explained. "And it always amazed me to see her because when she was off-stage she never seemed quite so well, beautiful. But one day many years ago I walked into her dressing room when we were appearing in the same play in London. And she was sitting in front of her mirror, talking to herself. She was saying over and over, 'I am beautiful, I am beautiful.'"

"And 10 minutes later when she walked out on the stage, she really was beautiful. Of course, at the end, when she came off the stage, she went back to being herself."

"But I thought that it might work for me—and in other ways."

Now I think that I can eat masses of chocolate bars, and bread and butter, but all the time I say, 'This is not going to make me fat.' And it doesn't."

Miss Gingold will co-star with Cyril Ritchard Sunday night in a program—part serious but largely satiric and comical—valued "The Beauty of Woman," on NBC Sunday night.

Newport Police Exonerated

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — The Newport Police Department was exonerated here Tuesday of any misconduct in connection with the confiscation of $271 from a poker game and the alleged beating of a prisoner.

The Newport Civil Service Commission issued a statement saying all allegations brought by four men involved in the poker game and a former radio operator for the department were "completely without merit."

The poker players had charged that the department used the confiscated money for its own use and falsified the amount taken in the raid. They said $377 was involved in the game.

Mrs. Jewell Lindsay alleged that three officers had beaten a man apprehended in a break-in.

The commission also directed the chief of police to deposit any money confiscated in the future with the municipal court and obtain a receipt.

Injunction Asked of Missile Base

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board requested Tuesday that U.S. District Judge Gordon E. Young issue an injunction to keep the Sheet Metal Workers Union from picketing Titan II missile base construction sites in central Arkansas.

Young complied, although the 18 sites have not been picketed since March 7 when the union was enjoined by the Pulaski Chancery Court.

Tuesday's injunction was to insure that work goes on while the sheet metal workers seek an agreement with the contractor in a jurisdictional dispute about who will install acoustical material in exhaust ducts.

Paul Hardeman, Inc., & Fishbach and Moore, Inc., the contractor, originally assigned the acoustical work to carpenters. The sheet metal workers put out pickets March 5.

The NLRB stepped into the picture following the Chancery Court action and filed a complaint in federal court.

Pickets failed to return, however, after the chancery injunction was lifted.

day night.

Catholics to Desegregate at N. Orleans

By ED TUNSTALL

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Roman Catholic schools in the New Orleans archdiocese will be desegregated next fall.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Henry Bezon, superintendent of the 75,000-student archdiocesan school system, read the announcement from Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel Tuesday night.

The statement did not use the words Negro or desegregation. It said merely that "effective at the time of registration for the 1962-63 school session, all Catholic children may apply for admission to the Catholic schools of the archdiocese according to accepted educational standards."

Registration dates for all Catholic schools were set for April 13-14.

State Sen. E. W. Gravolet said the announcement "may have a severe reaction from a segregated-minded legislature."

Gravolet, a Catholic himself and vice chairman of the joint legislative committee on segregation, predicted a "mass boycott will greet the integration" of Catholic schools in the city.

There were reports earlier that the archbishop, who termed segregation morally wrong and sinful in a pastoral letter in 1955, had decided on the desegregation move.

A handful of pickets paraded in front of the archbishop's residence during the afternoon. They carried signs indicating the Bible preached the doctrine of segregation.

The city's 93,000 pupil school system was desegregated under federal court order in November 1960. Name-calling, police restraint lines and street gatherings that reached near-riot proportions greeted the integration of William Frantz and McDonogh No. 19 schools.

Last fall, the start of classes was far more orderly, but only 12 Negroes are enrolled in six white schools.

Msgr. Bezon said there were 7,254 Negroes in the archdiocese's 15 elementary schools and another 1,724 in the three Negro high schools. Among the 1,100,000 persons in the area the archdiocese covers, there are 547,000 Catholics.

Appointment to Colony Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A. Nils Florentz of Little Rock was appointed today to a new seven-year term on the Arkansas Children's Colony Board by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Florentz, who is board chairman, was one of the principal backers of a 1957 appropriations act which provided funds for the colony.

His new term runs through Jan. 15, 1969.

Enter — Carefree Living

An entrance hall gives guests their first and last look of your home. It requires more thought in decorating than the other rooms to give the whole a unified appearance. Modern easy-to-clean vinyl wall and floor coverings reward the homemaker with color and variety, reflect the same taste as other parts of the home, but take twice the punishment of other materials.

One formal entrance takes its cue from a new solid vinyl floor tile which captures the color and depth of the semi-precious stone, malachite. The design's green, black and white swirls "float" on a metalized green background. A stunning decorative effect is achieved by combining the new pattern with green marble patterned solid vinyl on the floor and wall. The result is worthy of a Venetian palace.

Prefer the traditional look? Try using true wood floor tiles—mahogany, walnut, cherry or oak—with an invisible topping which makes this floor covering as scrubbable as vinyl itself. Combine this with a gray print vinyl wall covering and your entrance hall sparkles with color that thrives on periodic washings with a mild detergent.

A staircase is a decorative asset in an entrance hall when the floor and stair risers are covered with matching solid vinyl tiles or roll goods. For dramatic contrast, wrap up the theme with vinyl wallcovering in a woodgrain pattern. Varnish the bare stair treads to match the wall.

A handkerchief sized entrance hall takes on the air of a precious gem when its walls are covered with washable moire or textured linen patterned vinyl and its floor with easy-care white marble patterned vinyl. If its size permits, for an extra dash of elegance, "frame" a mirror with the marble floor tile.

Peret Said to Be Some Improved

NEW YORK (AP) — Deft, welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Peret was reported slightly improved today but still in critical condition from brain injuries as the New York Legislature was poised to launch an investigation of professional boxing.

The investigation shaped up at Albany only a few hours after release of a report by the State Athletic Commission that upheld the referee's judgment and the medical precautions in the near-fatal bout at Madison Square Garden in which Peret lost his title.

Peret, 25 and Cuban-born, was battered senseless by Emilio Grifith in the 12th round last Saturday night.

Accident at Pine Bluff Fatal

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Roy Peltz, 53, of Pine Bluff died here Tuesday in a five-car accident that injured five persons.

State Police said Peltz was crushed between two cars when an automobile driven by Billy Mosley, 21, of Pine Bluff, struck a car on Highway 79 and then crashed into the two cars parked near Peltz. Peltz was walking in front of his pickup truck, which also was struck by the Mosley auto.

Officers said the two parked cars were knocked 106 feet from the point of impact.

Mosley and four passengers in his car were injured. They were Kirby Lawrence, 20; Marvin Rauls, 19; Richard Rogers, 22; and Sam Heird, 19, all of Pine Bluff.

Oscar Wiley, 25, of Pine Bluff, was not hurt. His was the first auto struck by Mosley.

8 Counties Free of Pink Worm

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — All of parts of eight counties were released Tuesday from "infested area" categories under pink bollworm regulations.

The state Plant Board and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Plant Pest Control Division said they felt the change was justified by the fact that no pink bollworms were found in the counties in the 1961 cotton crop.

Counties attaining "free area" status under regulations for the 1962 crop are Ashley, Bradley, Calhoun, Cleveland, Drew, Jefferson, Ouachita and Union.

day night.

The latest medical bulletin on Peret from Roosevelt Hospital said:

"His coma has lessened. He has made some purposeful movement with his arms. His condition still remains critical."

A resolution to create a joint legislative committee to investigate boxing in the state was endorsed today by leaders of the legislature.

The committee would determine whether adequate measures were being taken to:

1. Protect the safety of boxers.
2. Prevent domination of boxing by "racketeers, gamblers, convicted felons and other unsavory elements."

Under point 2, the sponsors of the probe did not make any accusation against the Peret-Grifith fight or any one connected with it.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who had ordered the rush report from the State Athletic Commission, released it to the public at Albany Tuesday night with this comment: "I and my staff are giving full consideration to the report."

The commission told the governor in the report:

"It is our opinion that all possible medical precaution had been taken prior to the contest and Referee (Rudy) Goldstein acted in good judgment in stopping the fight when he did."

Big Variety for Shoppers on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Shopping for meat main courses will be a delight in most stores this weekend, the more so for those able to take full advantage of a wide selection of lower prices by stocking freezers.

Beef, pork, lamb and poultry categories all include plenty of good buys, especially in markets east of the Rockies.

One national chain is featuring beef rib roasts at 59 cents a pound and boneless chuck at 69 in its New York outlets, for instance.

In the Southeast, virtually all beef cuts from steaks through hamburger offer good buys.

Midwest shoppers will find chuck roasts and round, sirloin and porterhouse steaks on special sale at many markets.

Pork features regionally attractive include chops, hams and bacon.

Lamb roasts are good buys in the Midwest and spring lambs are West Coast features.

Among poultry, broiler-fryers and turkeys continue to rank high over the nation on the good-buy list.

Lenten fish features are not as numerous this week as last but there is still a wide selection.

Dairy products and eggs are very attractively priced nationally.

Vegetable supplies, with a few exceptions, are ample. Featured are carrots, onions, potatoes and tomatoes, with regional bargains in local greens, lettuce and radishes.

Grapefruit and oranges led the citrus parade, with avocados and, regionally, melons other fruit attractions.

Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company and its subsidiaries invested 27 million dollars in Arkansas during 1961 for industrial development and expansion of its utility system.

Delicious Nut Chocolate Bread Inspires Happy Coffee Talk

Women are imaginative creators, no doubt about that. Furthermore, there's hardly a woman alive who doesn't enjoy making her own ideas, whether she goes to an office or stays home to care for her children. That's why kaffeklatsches began — and why they're such a booming success. Talk is the only entertainment. Kaffeklatsch demands. The refreshments can be nothing more than cups of coffee. But the kaffeklatsch becomes more of a party, and thus more fun, when there's a delicious homemade treat, too.

An eye-catching loaf of bread isn't hard to make when you use a little ingenuity and a quick mix. For example, there's our favorite, Lili's Nut Chocolate Bread. It's a simple, sensational combination of biscuit mix, bits of chocolate and chopped walnuts with orange juice for flavor accent. And it's wonderful with coffee!

Lili's Nut-Chocolate Bread
3 cups prepared biscuit mix
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
3 1/2 cups orange juice
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 6-oz. pkg. (1 cup)
semi-sweet chocolate pieces

Measure biscuit mix into mixing bowl and stir in sugar. Combine egg and orange juice and add to flour mixture. Beat hard 30 seconds. Stir in nuts and 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces. Turn into well-greased loaf pan 9x5x3 inches or 11x1 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches. Sprinkle remaining chocolate pieces on top of batter. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 55 to 60 minutes. Cool thoroughly before slicing. Serve with parsley-garnished cream cheese or whipped butter or margarine.

BANKING ON DEATH

By EMMA LATHEN

THE STORY: Kenneth Nicolls, a trust officer in the Sloan bank, is in Boston to interview Arthur Schneider, an industrialist, concerning the Schneider trust fund. The distribution of the fund will take place after the death of Schneider's aunt, but meanwhile one of the heirs has been murdered.

Chapter 10
It was after six o'clock when Arthur Schneider finally arrived to disrupt what had been an unusually pleasant afternoon.

A glance at Arthur Schneider, as he stomped into the room, was enough to show that he was thoroughly out of temper. His face was flushed, perhaps with cold, but his lips were tightly compressed. Nevertheless, he ruffled his son's hair, kissed his wife on the cheek, and greeted Nicolls, before he sank heavily into a chair and accepted a sherry from Jane with a somewhat absent, "Thanks, Kitten." His domestic obligations fulfilled, he looked around him, and said, "Well, I suppose you all know about Robert." He shot an accusing look at Kenneth, who nodded.

"Mr. Nicolls says that he has died," Mrs. Schneider began in a soothing voice.

"Oh, Mr. Nicolls does, does he? Does he say that he has been murdered? And that these pin-headed numskulls had the effrontery to ask what I was doing on the night he was murdered?"

"Arthur!" gasped his wife. "Murdered!"

"I always knew that he'd come to a bad end," Arthur continued, "but this..." The enormity of being murdered overwhelmed him.

For a moment nobody said anything. Then Mrs. Schneider, apparently feeling that this conversation was unsuitable for young ears, shooed the protesting Buddy to his room.

"Gee, Dad, do you have an alibi?" he cried from the hall.

"To your room, young man!" his mother said firmly.

in a reasonable tone. "There's no use pretending that I care anything at all about this man that I've never even seen. But I do care about you. So, do you have an alibi?"

"Josephine, I don't know what you're..." begin Arthur. He broke off, took a sip of sherry, then said, "Yes, my girl, I do have an alibi." The Schneiders, Kenneth decided, had either forgotten his existence or decided to admit him to the family. John Thatcher would approve, but he felt very much out of place.

"Arthur, when was this murder?"

ter that his glass could be refilled. Arthur indicated to his daughter I was coming back from filled. "It was apparently the Chicago..."

"Daddy, not really!"

"Arthur!"

"And," Arthur continued, "I told them that if the Mayflower in Washington wasn't a good enough guarantee that I wasn't murdering this miserable..."

again his feelings got the better of him and he waved his hand in a mute, but perfectly comprehensible expression of exasperation.

"You see, Arthur," Mrs. Schneider said with a smile. "All's well that ends well." She turned to Kenneth. "My husband was flying home from Chicago that weekend. Let me see it was..."

"Friday the 11th," he prompted. She looked at him for a moment, then went on. "Yes, Friday the 11th. Well, of course there was a terrible snowstorm so they had to reroute Arthur's plane to Washington, where he checked in at the Mayflower, and had a good night's sleep before coming in the next day."

Arthur shifted impatiently, but did not interrupt. "I, on the other hand," Jane said, taking up the narrative, "went to meet my father at Logan Airport, despite the snow."

"I shudder to think what your driving must have been like," her mother commented.

Jane returned with some sherry which she handed to her father. "You two were perfectly com-

Workers Fight Flood Waters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Flood workers battled the surging waters of many rivers and streams in parts of Iowa and Nebraska today as early spring overflows forced hundreds of persons from their homes.

Mild weather increased the melting of the heavy snow cover in the flood-stricken areas. The season's warmest weather also extended across most of the eastern half of the nation.

In Nebraska, the most severe flooding appeared to be in Pierce, on the Northfork River in the upper northeast section of the state. The river had spilled over more than 30 blocks of the town of some 1,200 persons. Evacuation of residents continued throughout the night.

Minor flooding was reported in Norfolk, a town of about 12,000 some 12 miles downstream from Pierce, and water covered farm lands between the two communities. Other danger spots were in Waterloo and Kings Lake on the Elkhorn River, and near Bellevue, a south suburb of Omaha, at the confluence of the Missouri and Platte rivers and Pappio Creek. About 300 of the 620 residents of Kings Lake left their homes but only a few were evacuated at Waterloo. Some 400 persons in the lowland area of Bellevue left their homes.

The Floyd, Big Sioux and Little Sioux rivers flooded areas in northwest Iowa. The Floyd River was expected to crest at six to seven feet above flood stage in Sioux City by late Thursday.

Sandbags lined the banks of the Floyd River which twists through the eastern part of the city of 85,000 population.

The Little Sioux was on a rampage and menaced Spencer, a town of about 7,500 with a possible 20-foot crest, 10 feet above flood stage. Floodwaters covered farm lands in northern counties.

In the nation's weather, show-ers sprinkled the Dakotas while a mixture of wet snow and rain pelted sections of Montana. Light rain fell in many parts of New England as cloudy skies persisted from eastern New York northeastward.

A southerly flow of mild air kept temperatures far above seasonal levels in a broad belt from New Mexico northeastward into the Missouri and upper Mississippi River valleys.

table in Framingham and Washington. I was the one who suffered." Her mother laughed at what apparently had become a family joke.

Ignoring the interruption, Jane continued. "The plane was due at 9:30. At ten they announced that it would be delayed. I sat and waited. Meanwhile the snow was still falling."

"And I was getting frantic," Mrs. Schneider added.

"At 12 o'clock I called Mother to tell her that the airline still said the plane was coming in."

"It was showing very heavily," Mrs. Schneider said, "and the end result was that Jane called at two to tell me that there was still a possibility that the plane might be coming in, and I told her that her father was in Washington."

"Yes," said Jane, "by this time it was impossible to drive out of Logan, so I had to spend the night there. No coffee, no bar, nothing."

"Never call and ask if a plane is going to be on time," Mrs. Schneider said.

"It's all that glamour," Jane announced.

National Hobby Month
The calendar is loaded with special weeks and months for this or that, but I came across one recently that makes a lot of sense. It's National Hobby Month — April 1962.

Since Americans enjoy a reputation for devising some wonderful ways to use leisure it's only fitting that a special month be set aside to observe this fact.

You might say National Hobby Month is a salute to the millions of model railroaders, model airplane, boat and car builders, the handicrafters, and the science hobbyists.

They deserve a special tribute, because they've learned that well spent leisure time is rewarding leisure time. They have learned how to fight boredom, how to relax, how to be more interesting. And in a pleasant way, they have gained in knowledge... the kind that always rubs off from a fun filled hobby.

If there's anyone who hasn't discovered the wonderful world of hobbies, National Hobby Month is the time to get started. Whether you're 8 or 50, there's something you can make or collect.

Join the ranks of hobbyists. I'm glad I did!

Flood Control Bid
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An apparent low bid of $24,978.50 was submitted Tuesday by E. L. Colburn, a Westville, Okla., contractor, on a contract to relocate five cemeteries that will be flooded by the waters of the Dardanelle Reservoir. Army Engineers had estimated the project at $29,809.90. The cemeteries are the Shiloh, Williamson and Smith of Pope County and the Jetton and Reznor in Johnson County. A total of 711 graves will be moved to a new site north of Russellville. The new cemetery will be known as the Shiloh-Williamson Memorial Cemetery.

Bottlers Elect
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Felix Weatherly of Little Rock was elected president of the Arkansas Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages as the bottlers ended their 51st annual convention here Tuesday.

Says Machine Will Have a Candidate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Kenneth Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney who has declared himself a candidate for governor, says the Faubus administration will have a "fair-haired boy" in the governor's race even if the governor does not run.

"They'll have one and maybe two or three," Coffelt said.

Coffelt noted that the governor said Tuesday he would try for free radio and television time for a Saturday night broadcast if his decision is to step out.

"Coffelt said he would apply for equal free time, because even if Faubus steps down, he will review the accomplishments of his administration and set the stage for the administration candidate, and Coffelt considers that a political telecast."

The broadcast will originate from the studios of station KARK in Little Rock, and may be carried by a dozen Arkansas radio and TV stations.

Faubus said if he runs, his supporters will pay for the broadcast, but that if he bows out, he will ask for free time.

Arkansas has furnished two players to the National Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y.: Jerome Herman "Dizzy" Dean of Lucas (Logan County), and William M. "Bill" Dickey of Little Rock.

Melancholy Fear Brought by Spring

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—To 100,000 or more heroic Americans the sweet season of spring brings a melancholy fear.

They are victims of an ancient and mysterious ailment (despite all rumors to the contrary) known as goul, a disease that has plagued mankind since the first robin, an onset of goul often heralds the arrival of spring.

Some doctors may poo-poo the idea that weather really has much to do with goul, one of the most painful but character-building afflictions in mankind's vast arsenal of disease.

But chronic-goul sufferers know different. Experience has taught them to fear the rainy days of spring and autumn. It is then they feel at twilight a premonitory twinge in toe, foot, ankle, knee, wrist or elbow and wake up in the morning feverish and racked with an agony that is the nearest masculine equivalent to the pangs of childbirth.

That is characteristic of an acute attack of goul. It comes like a thief in the night. It strikes a man down when he is defenseless in the dark.

Goul may affect practically any joint in the body, but about 90 per cent of the time it seems to prefer one of the big toes. The resulting throbbing sensation feels somewhat as if you had thrust your foot into an electric clothes wringer—and kept it there.

The new thing about goul, a columnist Bill Vaughan of the Kansas City Star has observed, is that it gives so much pleasure to your friends.

They are gleefully certain that it is a heaven-sent punishment for some indiscretion of the flesh on your part.

This has been the unfeeling attitude of the ignorant in all ages, but does allow the goul victim the luxury of feeling he is a persecuted martyr.

The truth is that science knows little about the cause of goul, other than that it is a metabolic upset that often may be hereditary.

Goul comes not only to the merry monarch on the throne after a big bout of gluttonous eating and drinking. It comes also to the ascetic monk in his cell in the exhaustion following a period of spiritual ecstasy.

It can also hit an ordinary victim after a siege of overwork or strain, or in the wake of a violent quarrel with his boss or favorite wife.

Those who endure the tortures of goul are proud of two things about it:

1. It is a real he-man's disease. Women have no equal rights to it. Only one out of 20 goul patients is a woman, and she may be a medical social climber trying to claim an ailment she isn't entitled to.
2. Goul is a thinking man's disease.

Shots Either by Spoon or Needle Soon

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Children, and adults, too—will soon be able to get protection against all forms of polio by the spoon as well as by the needle.

The way was cleared Tuesday when the government approved production of Type III oral polio vaccine for general use—the last of the series of vaccines given by mouth needed for protection against all three kinds of polio.

"We now have two effective vaccine weapons to fight this disease: the killed vaccine developed by Dr. Albert Salk and the live oral vaccine prepared from strains developed by Dr. Albert Sabin," said U.S. Surgeon General Luther L. Terry.

He called it "another step forward toward final conquest of disease, or so its victims like to believe. Among the celebrated heroes of goul are such intellectual frontiersmen as Christopher Columbus, Francis Bacon, Samuel Johnson and Benjamin Franklin.

When you see a man jeer at goul you can be sure of one thing: He is an ignoramus who hasn't the brains to achieve goul himself—and is secretly envious of his betters.

DIETING? DON'T SKIP BREAKFAST

According to author Mies on nutrition, you may be fooling yourself if you are skipping or skimping breakfast to cut down your caloric consumption.

It's this way, they say: Breakfast skippers or skimpers naturally get hungrier and usually eat more at lunch and dinner. And this results in an increase—not a decrease—in their intake of calories.

Dr. Frederick J. Stare, head of the nutrition department of Harvard University, believes that if you eat a good breakfast you are likely to eat less later. He has called breakfast the most important meal of the day whether you are trying to reduce or to maintain in your weight.

Nutrition authorities also list other reasons why you should not skip or skimp breakfast.

For instance:

- "The body has been without food for 10 to 12 hours and should be supplied with nutrients needed for the morning's activities," said Dr. Lydia Roberts, chairman emerita of the University of Chicago department of home economics.
- "Failure to have enough to eat of the right kind of breakfast may result in fatigue, irritability and lessened efficiency and work output."

In "An Introduction to Foods and Nutrition" Drs. Henry C. Sherman and Caroline Sherman Lanford wrote:

"Breakfast is the meal probably the most often slighted. Yet none is more important in setting the pace for the day's activities."

... many persons who have been accustomed to eating a very light breakfast and who are surprised to find how much less tired they feel, and how much more efficiently they work through the morning, when they change to a more abundant breakfast."

Doctors and nutritionists advise that breakfast should supply not less than a quarter of the food nutrients needed per day.

In amounts an individual can eat comfortably, a good basic breakfast could include: Citrus fruit or fruit or vegetable juice; toast; and cereal; eggs with bacon; or other breakfast meat and toast; butter or margarine; milk or coffee.

Dairy Farm Head Gives Testimony

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The president of Coleman Dairy, Inc., of Little Rock testified Tuesday that the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association in 1960 sold some milk to two of his competitors at lower prices than he paid for it.

H. S. (Boots) Coleman, president of the dairy, was on the witness stand all day as a Federal Trade Commission hearing entered its second day.

The FTC has charged CAMPA and David L. Parr, CAMPA's secretary-manager, with conspiring to restrain or eliminate competition and with setting discriminatory prices for favored milk processors.

CAMPA and Parr have denied the charges.

CAMPA's principal operations are in Arkansas, although it also has member dairy farms in Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri. The association sells raw milk produced by its members and others to independent milk processors.

The hearing is expected to last at least two weeks.

Florida Tax Trial to Be Resumed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An Internal Revenue Service special agent testified Tuesday that he had not checked books before 1951 to determine any accumulative balances in the federal tax trial of Andrew and George Florida of Osceola.

The agent, Eugene Brown of Memphis, was cross examined by attorneys for the Florida brothers. Government attorneys are expected to question Brown today.

The trial, in U.S. District Court here, is in connection with government claims that the brothers owe $9.5 million in income taxes, penalties and interest for the years 1951-54.

Tuesday's testimony was directed for the most part at the organizational structure of the brothers' partnership and multiple corporations.

U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley, responding to defense contentions that some of the income of some corporations should be disregarded in the case, said the question would have to be decided later.

Brown used charts Monday to trace the flow of money back and forth among the brothers and their corporations.

Henley said Tuesday the government would be allowed to use only the exhibits it could support with testimony, but overruled a

Phone Rate Issue Will Be Studied

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Public Service Commission took under advisement today a request that a temporary rate increase granted the Walnut Hill Telephone Co. in 1960 be made permanent.

The PSC staff reported at a hearing today the company earned 5.64 per cent on its investment during 1961 and its rate of return would be only 5.97 per cent when profits are adjusted to account for customers added in 1961.

The rate increase was granted for the company's Lewisville exchange on contingency that the service be converted to dial.

The commission is expected to make the rate permanent since there was no opposition.

In other action before the PSC today, the Yell County Telephone Co. asked for authority to borrow $75,000 to finance construction of an office building and to extend its lines to serve an additional 273 customers.

The company also asked for permission to declare a 20 per cent stock dividend.

Europe to Buy U. S. Equipment

NEW YORK (AP)—Undersecretary of the Treasury Robert V. Roosa disclosed today that several European countries have agreed to buy well over $1 billion of military equipment and services in the United States.

Roosa, in an address prepared for the New York Society of Security Analysts, said this would go far toward offsetting the United States' overseas military spending of $3 billion a year.

The purchases by foreign countries were negotiated as a means of helping to reduce the U.S. balance of payments deficit, which amounted to about $2.5 billion in 1961.

Roosa's announcement was the first to place the foreign military purchases at more than $1 billion and to indicate that a number of European countries are involved. He did not name them.

George Kell of Swifton, Arkansas, was the American League batting champion in 1949.

defense motion that some government exhibits be thrown out. The defense contended the companies involved in the exhibits paid no constructive dividends.

Dainty Foods And Coffee Make A Party

Appetizing "finger foods" and extra good coffee make any gathering a party. Use your favorite chicken, turkey, crabmeat or lobster salad as a spread for dainty sandwiches. Vary the shapes and make some of them open-faced. Try thin slices of ham or chicken on buttered bread, tucking in a bit of watercress or parsley. Soften cream cheese; then add finely chopped clams and seasonings. Offer fresh shrimp and a dip. Serve the coffee fresh and hot, making it, of course, from a premium-blended coffee, such as Yuban, and present it in your prettiest cups. As a change, you might like to offer "Hot Mocha" made this way:

Hot Mocha Drink

1/3 to 1/2 cup instant chocolate flavor mix
2 cups hot milk
1/2 cup hot freshly-brewed premium-blended coffee
1/2 cup whipped cream
Cinnamon

Combine chocolate flavor mix, coffee, and milk, stirring to blend. Serve hot, topping each serving with a little whipped cream and a dash of cinnamon. Makes 6 servings, about 2/3 cup each.

Payments Problem Discussed

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told Congress today that U.S. efforts to control the persistent balance of payments deficit are "still far from our target" and will require "the energies of all our people."

Kennedy sent to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., a 29-page report on the payments problem, prepared by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon.

The document contained one major recommendation—the appointment of a top-level export coordinator in the Commerce Department who would concentrate "on the overriding need to expand our export sales." The White House said the post would be filled in a day or two.

Kennedy, in his letter of transmittal, said that "above all, we must harness the energies of all our people—in labor and management as well as government—to the vital task of keeping our industry competitive and expanding our exports."

Medical Group for Kennedy's Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty-seven physicians, mostly members of the American Medical Association, announced today the formation of a voluntary committee to support President Kennedy's proposal for health care under the Social Security system.

Dr. Caldwell B. Esselstyn of Hudson, N.Y., said the doctors decided to form an active organization after their call at the White House Tuesday to pledge Kennedy their support.

Esselstyn, medical director of the Rip Van Winkle Clinic at Hudson and president of the Group Health Association of America, said the committee hoped to be a rallying point for "many thousands" of doctors who disagreed with AMA's opposition to the bill.

Candidate Bids on Contracts

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Secretary of State Nancy Hall said today she has mailed specifications on 15 state printing contracts to Wallace Hurley of Camden, who has said he may run for governor.

Hurley owns the Hurley Printing Co. at Camden. The contracts, worth about $1 million, are those lost by the Parkin Printing Co. on a Supreme Court ruling. The court held the contracts were invalid because Harry W. Parkin, owner of the firm, is a member of the state Highway Commission.

Parkin said Tuesday he will announce by Thursday whether he will resign from the commission so he can submit a new bid on the contracts. Mrs. Hall will open new bids Friday.

Mrs. Hall said Parkin's firm had not asked for a new set of specifications on the contract but new specifications would not necessarily be needed for the firm to submit a bid since they are the same as those on which Parkin bid successfully in July, 1961.

Gordon Files for 9th Term

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon filed today as a candidate for a ninth two-year term.

Gordon has served under four governors, starting with Ben Laney in 1947 and continuing with Sid McMath, Frances Cherry and Orval E. Faubus for the last seven years.

Gordon, 47, is a Morriton attorney. He defeated Leroy Hickman of Little Rock in 1960. Before that, he had run without opposition since 1950.

He paid his $250 filing fee. Gordon had announced previously he would run. So far, he has no opposition.

Arkansans Fought for Poll Tax

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas' senators—John L. McClellan and J. W. Fulbright—were in the thick of the Southern effort in the Senate to block a move aimed at abolishing state poll taxes as a requisite to voting in federal elections.

Fulbright made two three-hour talks, McClellan made one in recent days.

Both stoutly defended Arkansas' $1 poll tax. The southern effort was directed at preventing senate consideration of a proposal to submit a proposed constitutional amendment to prohibit such poll taxes.

The effort appeared doomed to failure since the South itself is divided on the subject of poll taxes and it's impossible for a mere handful of senators to filibuster indefinitely. Actually only five states now have poll taxes—Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Texas and Virginia.

The filibuster ended Monday. However, McClellan and Fulbright dutifully took the floor and spoke their pieces.

Galleys, comparing the performances of the two, noted that Fulbright, as is his custom, spoke quietly and dispassionately.

McClellan, obviously relishing his effort, frequently rose to oratorical heights, shouting and gesturing. Then he would subside into reading from matter he had assembled.

Frankly, three-hour talks on such a subject are on the dull side — it's all been said many times. Consequently, except for some spectators and tourists in the gallery, few stay around to hear the speaking.

Only a handful of senators stick around and a couple of these generally are there to ask questions of the speaking senator in order to give him a little respite. The press gallery thins out noticeably.

But such talks require a lot of material and most senators read some, then extemporize some. They have at hand some printed matter which they can read.

Fulbright, for instance, in his second talk read at length from various state laws on poll taxes. McClellan read from a report by the Civil Rights Commission.

Both senators pointed out that Arkansas' tax of $1 a year—not cumulative — goes to Arkansas schools. Both also pointed out that the Civil Rights Commission had said it found no evidence in Arkansas that the poll tax was used to prevent Negroes from voting. In fact, Fulbright said, last year more than 68,000 Negroes in Arkansas paid their poll taxes and voted. He declared that if the federal government stepped up and deprived Arkansas schools of the $600,000 it derives from the poll tax, the government should replace that revenue. This gave him an opportunity to put in a plug for legislation to provide federal aid to education—which he favors.

This is a question on which the two Arkansas senators disagree—Fulbright strongly supports and votes for school aid bills; McClellan strongly opposes and votes

MOP May Take Over Railway

CHICAGO (AP)—The Missouri Pacific Railroad was favored over the Illinois Central for acquisition of the financially ailing Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad by witnesses at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing Tuesday.

Representatives of industrial plants in Pennsylvania, Illinois, Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri and against them. Both senators took the view the dollar poll tax should not deter any responsible citizen from voting. McClellan said it was a test of good citizenship.

At one point he waved his arms and shouted, "Big deal to keep a man from paying one dollar for the right to vote."

And Fulbright said he doubted that government would be improved by the casting of a vote by a person who doesn't care enough about government to pay a $1 poll tax. And so it went.

Minnesota said they favor MOP. MOP owns about 14 per cent of C&E's stock — 71,204 shares. The ICC has not disclosed how much, if any, C&E stock it had. Both lines have petitioned the ICC for authority to assume control of the C&E through stock ownership.

Most of the witnesses Tuesday said traffic to and from the southwest could be expedited by a MOP proposal to bypass the congested St. Louis terminal area via a C&E connection at Thebes, Ill.

Truck Kills Child
BOONEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Sylvia Jean Yates, 7, of Booneville, was struck by a truck and killed Tuesday as she crossed state Highway 23 one mile south of here on her way home from school.

The truck was driven by Floyd Wayne Bowen of Booneville, police said.

The first exhibition of the Arkansas Lumber Show Association was held in North Little Rock in the fall of 1939.

New and Easy Money-Saving Main Dish

With the nation's need to be physically fit, we are hearing a great deal these days about diet and exercise. The term "diet" as used here refers to the kinds and amounts of foods we need every day for good health, for certainly the food we eat does have a lot to do with how we look and how we feel.

Know-how in planning the "three squares a day" has been simply stated by nutritionists of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in their "Food for Fitness" guide. Foods essential for daily good eating have been set up in four broad categories as the meat group, vegetable group, bread-cereal group and the milk group, with recommended number of servings of each.

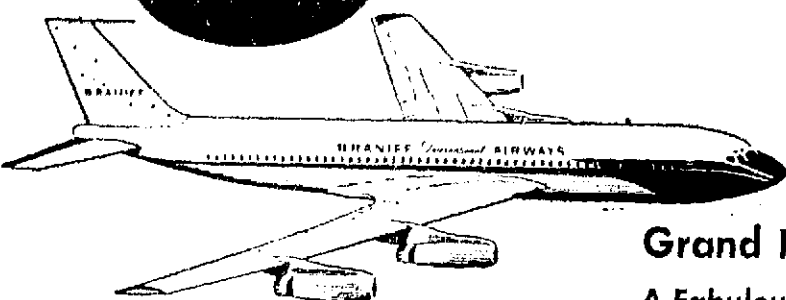

The flavorful and eye-appealing main dish suggested here adds up to good eating on three counts—chicken from the meat group, noodles from the bread-cereal group and evaporated milk from the milk group. It is double rich evaporated milk that is the key to improved flavor and food value in this old time favorite. Note its use with chicken broth for cooking the noodles—a new method which makes them fluffy and extra creamy.

CHICKEN AND NOODLES
3-1/2 to 4 lb. chicken, cut up
2 cups water
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 tall can evaporated milk (12/3 cups)
6 cups uncooked medium noodles (6-1/2 oz. pkg.)

Place chicken in a large kettle with the water, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil, cover and turn heat low. Cook until chicken is tender, about 1 hour. Lift chicken from broth, then remove from bones. Cut chicken into chunks and set aside. Add evaporated milk to chicken broth and bring to a boil. Add noodles and cook, stirring occasionally, until thickened, about 10 minutes. Add chicken and heat. Stir in 1/4 cup chopped parsley before serving. If desired, make 6 to 8 servings.
